

Wandspaziergang zum Wallberg

One photo-series is of special interest to us.

It documents a hiking tour to the Wallberg-mountain in the Bavarian Alps, ca 1935/36

In his handwriting Erich attached titles to his photos.

Participants of the Wallberg-tour according to his notes were „Erich, Mama, Papa and Oma“.

But who is „Oma“?

Erich's grandmother from Memmelsdorf had already died before his birth in 1924, his Memmelsdorf grandfather in 1935.

Grandfather Fantl, on his mother's side, had died in Furth im Wald in 1931; his wife, Erich's grandmother, had fled to Czechoslovakia in 1933 with her family. Crossing the border into Germany was no longer possible.

We think the white-haired elderly woman with a walking cane must be Trina Kuttner, the „substitute Oma“.

Unterwegs „Rifogewinn“

Erich Kahn,
the photographer,
Wallberg

Erich